Welcome your 2010 guests to Vancouver with a unique event at Winsor Galley. This 6,000 square foot art gallery provides a spectacular atmosphere for any client reception. The space is divided into two levels, and can host gatherings up to 250 people.

Contemporary architecture, soaring ceilings and dramatic skylights create an exceptional setting for your event. Winsor Gallery exhibits painting, photography and sculpture throughout the year. Surround your guests with contemporary art, and set the stage for a memorable evening.

Winsor Gallery opened its doors in 2003 in an intimate space located in the heart of Vancouver's business district. The inaugural exhibition was Korean artist Sang-geun Cho's multi-media drawings. Now housed in an expansive space on South Granville's "Gallery Row", Winsor Gallery continues to offer a select inventory of an international group of contemporary artists whose diverse practices include painting, drawing, sculpture, photography and mixed media. Since its inception, the gallery has maintained a strong commitment to launching the careers of emerging artists, providing a springboard for young artists through our ongoing relationships with premier institutions such as Emily Carr University of Art + Design and Concordia University's Fine Arts program. We seek to provide an innovative forum for contemporary art, while providing an intimate experience where patrons can discover how art can become an integral part of everyday life.
